Bad Mojo

Was listening to the offspring, when I was inspired to sing
There's nothing wrong with a crass song, if you've got the balls to sing along
Just say I'm right, let me ignite you, and I'll cease my ceaseless fight
Just one quick kiss, you'll never miss morality, in ecstatic bliss

Know it sounds crass, and without class, but I'd sure like to see your ass
Now let's go play, what do you say, 'cuz I think you'd be a great lay
Did you get my gist, hope you're not pissed, but I've become a realist
Just wanna seize you, not say please, 'cuz I know you'd look good on your knees

Just say you'll say yes to me now
And save my heart some pain somehow
And i can stop this pleading
You can make my heart stop bleeding
You

Don't you see why I have to try to keep myself safe from your smile
I know that my guard would unwind, and then I'd just break down and cry
If I got attached and you just laughed and then my heart would snap in half
And I'd be left, lost and bereft, of any love, my heart twain cleft

If I can write an obnoxious song and get you all to sing along
Then I don't mind being unkind, or leaving my morals behind
Occasionally it's alright with me to let libido set you free
As long as you're sure to hurt no one, it's cool to have some bad mojo fun

This is a choice, you have a voice, but if you'd say yes, I'd rejoice
I'm out of rhyme, though charming i'm, I know i'd show you a good time
Now you see why, 'cuz i'm a guy, we have to be assholes and lie
We're afraid to fall, that you won't call, 'cuz girls have power over us all

Just say you'll save me from myself
(Won't you want me)
Don't let me become someone else
(What i want you never wanted it to be)
Just say you'll save me from myself
(Won't you want me)
Don't let me become someone else
(When i act like this, why would you ever want me)

Lucky Strike

Whenever you're on the road, my boy, wherever you may roam
There's a place where warm embraces float upon the foam
There's always cheer where there is beer, and friends and songs abound
So don't be shy, just grab the mic, and sing another round

How many times in foreign lands, lost and without a clue
Have I stumbled off into a bar, where there's always a place for you
In life's confusions, wrent, distraught, i've found a way to get through Guinness is my shepherd, and to him I'm always true

So if you're ever feeling down, and you need a friendly kick
There's nothing like a depressive, a pint will do the trick
Depending on your state of mind, how badly you are blue
I'll buy this round, though it may be found, that you could use a few

Through all of history's blistering winds, a theme runs clear throughout
Strength in times of sadness may be found in ale or stout
But best of all does beer recall and summon friends to mind
Even those who've left this world for greener fields behind

Drink deep now, ere you depart, in the barroom find your strength
Raise your glass to dear departed friends, whose heart's love knew no length
One thing is clear where there is beer, your friends will see you through
So have no fear, there's always near, a pint to comfort you!

Fallen

Breaking through, a shining star, your face encases all my heart
Blown past my walls are torn apart, your sunshine, baby, lights my spark
Burst past my walls and rain retreating
I've fallen to my knees to see you repeating
All those words I've longed to hear
My battered, gleaming heart calls your name out clear

I once did, broken-hearted, bleed
But not I've fallen to my knees
Thought how my life had been redeemed
My angel baby's holding me up now

Now in words I cannot speak, what my love for my love in circles dreams
Now for the first time I've ever seen a poet rendered speechless by your gleam
And so I sing to break these walls, past fallen calling back to this shining hall
My angel baby sent down to head my call
A life of broken hearts only now to fall

Sorrow held my name before my loving found my love
Sunshine now winged soars, as angels fall in love

All through my winter's raging storms
I kept my heart above my hope for a distant song
And now my sunshine, reigning, calls out
"My angel baby, you hold my heart"

The Fire in My Heart

My heart is a fist that will rise up through the violence
My mind is a shield to these woes
My fists feed on the chaos of love's lost forlorn passion
And my rhyme is the salve of my hopes

And I don't understand through this loss what is gained
Through these dire straits travelled we'll never be the same
Though it might take a fire to remind us of our loves
I hope that you have learned

That I know that I say that this heart will never fade
And that my love will never burn away
And I know that I say that I'll be there til the end
I will never forget you, my friend

Juliet, when we made love you used to cry
Said I love you like the stars above, I'll love you til I die

Through this hatred, we shall rise
Into the sunshine

Out of the ashes I'll rise to the sky
And the fire in my heart will burn forever in your eyes

We're running out of time to tell our loved ones that we love them
Now it's clear we shall reap what we sow
But if we can gather some goodness from this sadness
Then we've not lived this horror all alone

To hope for the future we'll learn from the past
Every word to your loved ones just might be your last
Never leave in anger your troubles unpassed
And say what you want to say

That you know that you say that this heart will never fade
And that my love will never burn away
And I know that I say that I'll be there til the end
I will never forget you, my friend

Out of the ashes I'll rise to the sky
And the fire in my heart will burn forever in your eyes

Juliet, the dice were loaded from the start
But we'll never let terror tear our love apart

No, I don't know what I want
But I can't let you tear apart
My love my life my Earth my seas
I won't infect the world's disease
No, I won't let you bury down
My brothers, sisters, parents, sons
From all this rage and burning hate
A phoenix rises from ash-filled seas

Juliet, you know the fire is in my heart
Know that I will love you til the skies burn out the stars

Out of the ashes I'll rise to the sky
And the fire in my heart will burn forever in your eyes

How could we have known that what we'd done caused so much hatred
By opening our eyes to this rage
And in this life of violence, jealousy and anger
Be thankful for each breath that you take

If you don't understand then just look back in time
And you'll see the four horsemen approaching the right
There is no such vengeance as swift for our crimes
As regret bleeding into night

And I know that I say that this heart will never fade
And that my love will never burn away
And I know that I say that I'll be there til the end
I will never forget you, my friend

Tomorrow and Tomorrow

Wish I could hold you just once more into these veins
I knew you for such a short time, but you hit home and now what remains

Memories, like words in plays, will last 'til the turn of the page
The brief moments in our lives shall shine like a beacon always

And I am so afraid of what losing you could mean
I'll ever keep the moments with you always burning in me

I won't see you tomorrow, until I'm free

One A.M. laughed with you and the sting comes quick to my face
How long then, maybe a moment, but o the burn that remains
Tomorrow is just a moment, but my eyes can't see through this rain
I'll pray for you with each whisper and breath, until I see you again

One brief whisper in my head says that I will never see you again
But who could have guessed that the sun wouldn't set on me
Tomorrow rests in peace

When I see you tomorrow, you'll be free

Tomorrow holds my name
If I can ever see you again
Just hold my hand and I'll know that you're still there

Stars Will Fall

I've seen a face of softest beauty
I've seen a face eclipse the moon and sun
I've walked through life so broken, darkened,
And just one glance at you can heal the wounds
I've often dreamt of beauties so bright
That one glimpse can melt the heart grown cold
Guess i was captured in that moment
Your beauty brought peace to my world

All through this life of hopeless dreaming
All through my days of loneliness' lost plight
I've kep a hope within me burning
Out a search for this candle in the dark
If you would be my hopes come true now
I swear my love for you would never die
Just treat me with the kindness in you
And you will have found a love for life

I swear that i'll love you always

I've wandered worlds, seen broken spirits
I've seen sadnesses infinite and blind
To all the beauties that this world holds
Just out of reach of those hearts out of light
But just to look upon your face will Inspire those rise up the hopeless soul
With so much ugliness in this world your
Beauty shines like a beacon through the cold

Are you my angel of the sunshine
Are you my angel of the stars at night
Whatever you are, won't you be mine
Please, god, let this star fall into my heart

Bluster

I look I see, fall, fly, flee, feel my angel burning
Arrest the sun, the sky I feel my angel's burning

Don't look so dreary
Talk so weary
Through tainted eyelids
Still cannot believe I cannot see through tainted eyelids

Fall, fall into my eyes

Kiss Goodnight

If I can ease your suffering
With one song a few chords from my head
Then that is reason enough for me
To live this life

If I can hold your hand and
Where one song can make your heart reach the sky
As you've made my life rise

What can you say to me that I've not heard
Why can't you see that I would do anything, anything for you

Think of me (you know you keep my sun bright-shining)
Think of me (she touched me, God, I think I'm dying)
Cuz I've waited all my life for just one kiss goodnight

Dundee Forbes

I once knew a Scotsman, Dundee was his name
Double-fisting whiskey and lager was his game
He spent his time at Harley's, way up in Inverness
Harrassing all the passers-through
My God, this man's a mess

          Come meet Dundee Forbes and hear about the boats he's built
          But don't stay for too long, or you'll get a shot up his kilt

Now Dundee is a legend in the local pub
Official standard-bearer for his British Legion club
He built a boat for Danson and he fought the IRA
Claims he sees the Loch Ness monster every single day

When it comes to women, Dundee's taste is hard to beat
Free bed and breakfast for every lass he meets
When it comes to cultivation, Dundee's quite refined
He missed the chair and hit the floor, he needs another pint

Laugh To Tears

Was crying in my beer
Thinking about you, dear
Wondering when you'll be home again
So I sing myself this song
About how you did me wrong
And then I laught, cuz life's too short to cry

Been all around the world
Met all kinds of girls
But there's just one who means the world to me
Don't know where she is now
But I'll find her somehow
And when I do, she'll hear these words from me

          You left a pair of underwear inside my dresser drawer
          I mailed it back but the lady at your number said you weren't there no more
          It's a sleek black tight little sexy thing, I'm sure you've got some more
          You left a pair of underwear inside my drawer

Now you might think I'm sick
Or I'm some kind of dick
And that's a charge that I can't quite deny
Cuz when your heart's been broke
You appreciate a joke
And then you laugh, cuz life's too short to cry

Glory

(traditional, arranged by Noah Charney and The Jump Into)

Love Conquers

When I look at my life everyday
I can see the shadows of come-what-may
And fear comes closing in on me
Fear that I won't reach the pinnacles I've set
That I won't beat the challenges I've met
That this potential won't wait patiently
I think I know the heights to which I can soar
I keep on planning my days, my nights and more
The time has come to act my fears away
If I can make just one heart feel less pain
If from just one the loneliness is drained
Then my life, my love, becomes complete

'Cuz you, you're all that I want, all that I need
My angel who's watching over me
You see I get lost, lost in your eyes
From now til the end

The sight of you watching over me
To know your love is always there to feel
Is what keeps me going through the rain
Just hold my hand and hold me through the night
And I can conquer any mountain's height
I know you're always watching over me
So bring the rain, the pain, duress and more
Your heart allows me ever to explore
To fulfill the dreams that I may seek Even when you're gone I know you'll be
In a far better place watching over me
And when I think of you, I'll sing

'Cuz you, you're all that I want, all that I need
My angel who's watching over me
Now I can see, see through your eyes
Just what I can be
